Dear Anne

I must set down very minutely what occurred after your departure. Oliver came with proof. A package of envelopes which Robert Loring has sent for the fair. Mary Robbins called a moment but told no special news — various items which James had offered to Margaret Forbes &c &c to send in cream on Monday — After dinner a young man called, who announced himself as Josiah Wolcott & offered his services to make all the mottos — We dont know who he is, but Maria thinks he has saved her life — He is going to make a beautiful box to put out a' nights with a lamp in it. I went to the office & carried the fair puff to the Liberator. & the proof is to go on to the Standard thus saving Maria all the trouble of writing it twice — Jerrington seems to have taken Knapps place, in regard to Maria's bottles. A note came from G. Bond saying that we could trim the Hall any time, one brother objected to their being A. S. mottoes put up — There had been no time to say any thing to the ladies about coming to help trim All went over to Chauncy St. but Maria & V. Maria had to stop & rest & I could not leave work. After tea Maria went & I sat alone & worked. About 10 the party returned & now for the good news — Wendell had hooked an Emancipator Extra which these rascals are trying to keep private. No other can be got for love or money — It is an appeal for money

& a full statement of how dreadfully in debt they are & how awfully their debts are increas-ing. S. W. Alden puts out the article, & says "a crisis is at hand which absolutely forbids longer silence on my part"- He states who the agents &c are, being 6 salaried people in all. S. B. Storey. Wm B. Dodge Olavitt the only ones of any importance Their expensed for the Emancipator & every thing is, $11,600!! per annum Dont you think their expenses enormous. I will copy the bill

Salaries &c ——— $6,000 Grant & Co for paper — 2,600
D. H. Elsa for printing Emancipator 3,000

Their last year's debt was 5,560.26 During the 6 months which has elapsed of this year they have done nothing to-wards liquidating the old debt & have run in $1,375,63 & if they go on as they have done at the end of 6 more months, they will be in debt $3,301.84 They state in big letters, "if the friends of the cause do not come forward & manifest their love for the slave by larger donations, the Committee will not go on with their operations" Keitte can Leavitt go to Washington unless the money is raised, beforehand." So much pecuniary ~~difficulty~~ responsibility has been thrown on the Committee that it is exceedingly difficult, may next to impossible to get men of wealth to stand as members Even men without wealth have withdrawn &c" "Shall the committee dismiss their agents & oblige them to seek other avocations? Shall they say to Mr Leavitt, you can no longer be sustained in the A.S. cause & so far as Mass is concerned, you must follow Messrs Quincy & Stanton & seek such a row. Henry Bowditch has done an awful deed, not in vain did the Emancipator call [illegible], a letter came from Calvin Gedding's saying that the Leavitt & Gedding's saying that the Leavitt & Gedding's saying coming up & that there must be an anti slavery reporter Henry Bowditch at Ellis'! mitigation was about giving, has told them, he will give $5.00. Maria pitched in like a flood — & the Universe is turning over to get Child right on to Washington Warren is going up to North Hawton at 3 o'clock to see the Child. This is the worst squeeze yet The very pinch of the game — Mary Chapman is going to Collins wedding. You must manage in some way to get at from Weymouth.

other employment!" This needs no comment. We are screaming out loud all the time

Yes screaming - & tell Lucie too to scream the first time she displays comes - or any safe person - all the Russia pictures - our safe packers - & the little set of views of St Petersburg - I want Plan about the book tables till I have them - tell Emma that I am writing & raging about the book tables & this I think will make it perfect - this year great light - has dawned & darkened on my mama - on many fronts - this is important about the pictures - Collins was here this morning & I with out taking considerable pains warned the invitation which it appears Eunice had sent. So if you can & want to go the way is open for you. Collins somewhat expects a formal note - Collins has just come in & brought a regular invitation - who or how we will go is not settled - Chauncey & I is invited but I have not heard what they say - I can hardly write in the midst of

Collins is in again, & says invite all the Weymouth people. I want them all. So tell Aunt Mary she must go if time allows. Collins specially mentioned her, as a dear friend whom he wished would come". Emmy & all "must come says he. Henry is invited Bro May cannot come to marry Collins, so what he will do I know not — Garrison is no better — though they do not fear that he is in danger. He is very ill. He has the worst kind of scarlet fever. Emily Harwell is taking care of him — Sarah Southwick was there yesterday, though not with the sick ones.
The Latimer meeting at Ded-ham is postponed — what I have written I know not.
The pressure is tremendous.
